History Day Help Sessions Saturdays from 10-12 and other times by appointment.

We can help you find information on these and other topics

- from the books in our collection
- from other good places to look for primary and secondary sources
- from people you might be able to interview.

We can also help you develop your thesis and structure your argument.

Check out our History Day topic list at eastsidefreedomlibrary.org

Our volunteers range from middle and high school teachers to college professors, and include National History Day winners and the mentors of winners. .
